

Trump Says He Has Nearly $500m In Cash But Doesn't Want To Use It To Pay NY Fraud Judgment

In "Trump Says He Has Nearly $500m In Cash But Doesn't Want To Use It To Pay NY Fraud Judgment" (NBC News 4 New York, March 22, 2024), Pollock Cohen partner Adam Pollock discusses the Monday deadline set for former President Donald Trump to pay a nearly half-billion-dollar fraud judgement, or face seizure of his assets by New York State Attorney General Letitia James.

To view the video clip, click on the link below.

Trump Says He Has Nearly $500m In Cash But Doesn't Want To Use It To Pay NY Fraud Judgment | NBC News 4 New York

Pollock Cohen LLP Page 1