

Health Insurers Just Killed the Medicare Plan City Retirees Railed Against

In "Health Insurers Just Killed the Medicare Plan City Retirees Railed Against" (July 19, 2022), the article discusses New York City's "years-long effort to shift retired city workers to a cost-cutting health care plan" and an announcement made by the insurers in charge of this plan to withdraw from the deal. Following the state Supreme Court's decision which prohibited the city from charging retirees for deciding to keep their current plan, the Alliance announced on its website that it had told the city that it won't be able to offer the NYC Medicare Advantage Plus Plan anymore.
