

Unpacking West Virginia v. EPA

A former Pollock Cohen attorney is the most recent guest on Hannon Armstrong's Climate Positive Podcast discussing the Supreme Court's recent decision in West Virginia v. EPA, and the firm's work on the case authoring an amicus brief on behalf of 192 Members of Congress supporting the EPA's authority to regulate carbon emissions under the Clean Air Act.

To listen to this podcast, click on the link below.

Unpacking West Virginia v. EPA | Climate Positive