

Judge Blocks NYC from Charging Retired City Workers $15 Co-Pays in Latest Medicare Setback for Adams

In "Judge Blocks NYC from Charging Retired City Workers $15 Co-Pays in Latest Medicare Setback for Adams" (NY Daily News, January 11, 2023), the Daily News article covers Manhattan Supreme Court Justice Frank's decision to order the City and Emblem Health "to immediately stop charging retired city workers $15 co-pays for doctors' visits."

Last January, New York City started illegally imposing a $15 co-pay on its retired employees. Pollock Cohen, along with co-counsel Jake Gardener at Walden, Macht & Haran, successfully enjoined the City and Emblem Health from charging these illegal co-pays.

To read the full article, click on the link below (subscription may be required).

Judge Blocks NYC from Charging Retired City Workers \$15 Co-Pays in Latest Medicare Setback for Adams