

Judge Blocks Medicare Advantage Switch for 250K NYC Retirees, Days Before Crucial Deadline

In “Judge Blocks Medicare Advantage Switch for 250K NYC Retirees, Days Before Crucial Deadline” (Gothamist, July 7, 2023), it was reported that that New York Supreme Court Justice Lyle Frank issued a restraining order blocking the city’s attempt to switch 250,000 retired New York City employees to a Medicare Advantage Plan. This decision is the fifth victory in the courts for the retirees.

Partner Steve Cohen represents the NYC Organization of Retirees in this matter.
