State Court Bans NYC's Medicare Advantage Retiree Switch

In "State Court Bans NYC's Medicare Advantage Retiree Switch" (Law360, August 14, 2023), Law360 discusses the New York Supreme Court's decision to permanently block the City from switching its retirees from traditional Medicare benefits with supplemental insurance to a private Medicare Advantage plan. The court ruled that such action would be a violation of city law and a promise that has been made to workers.

Partner Steve Cohen along with Jacob Gardener and Hannah Belitz of Walden Macht & Haran LLP have been representing the retirees in this case.
