

Ana Cabrera Reports: Habba Stepping Down as Acting U.S. Atty. for NJ

Pollock Cohen managing partner Adam Pollock joined Ana Cabrera on MSNow (MSNBC), talking about Alina Habba finally resigning after multiple courts found that she was illegally in her role as US Attorney in DNJ. But as he said, there are still a number of so-called “interim” US Attorneys who have stayed in their role past the legal limit of 120 days. The Trump administration is unlawfully ignoring the Constitution’s requirement of “the Advice and Consent of the Senate” for the appointment of principal officers.
