Bloomberg: Barneys Family Drama Shows Reach of NY's Tax Whistleblower Law

In "Bloomberg: Barneys Family Drama Shows Reach of NY's Tax Whistleblower Law" (Bloomberg Law, April 27, 2026), Bloomberg discusses a court feud among the family members behind Barneys New York. The dispute is about an alleged scheme to hide inherited wealth from taxes—allegations of which arose due to a whistleblower law in New York.

Tax whistleblower attorney Adam Pollock, Managing Partner at Pollock Cohen LLP, commented on the tax features of New York's False Claims Act: "It's actually very rare to see a frivolous FCA tax case," said Pollock, an alum of the state's Taxpayer Protection Bureau.
