

Op-Ed: When Bad Doctors Happen to Good Patients

In "When Bad Doctors Happen to Good Patients" (The New York Times, August 31, 2015), Thomas Moore and Steve Cohen express concerns about an impediment to passing the Lavern's Law, "a bill that would have helped grievously injured victims of medical malpractice have their day in court," Thomas Moore and Steve Cohen discuss a lack of legal mechanisms holding administrators and doctors accountable and allowing victims to file a lawsuit in the case of medical malpractice.
