The Government and Lawyers Have a Lot to Learn From 'Law and Order'

In "The Government and Lawyers Have a Lot to Learn From 'Law and Order'" (The New York Observer July 19, 2017), Steve Cohen discusses how much the legal system could learn from the drama of the television series with respect to mastering dramatic delivery and trial art. And how the court system could perhaps be inspired to change based on the 24/7 schedule implied by the series.
