

What I Wish I Knew Then: Judith Livingston

In the second installment of the New York Law Journal's "What I Wish I Knew Then," partner Steve Cohen speaks with Judy Livingston, senior partner at Kramer, Dillof, Livingston & Moore. Judy, who has been called "A Legal Legend" by Law Dragon and named one of "The 50 most influential women lawyers in America" by New York magazine, shares insights about the value of watching good trial lawyers in the courtroom, what it means to "know your case," and the importance of really listening.
