

The False Claims Act's Untapped Potential in Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) Fraud Fight

In “The False Claims Act's Untapped Potential In PPP Fraud Fight” (Law360, Expert Analysis, August 3, 2022), Adam Pollock presents an expert analysis about how the False Claims Act can be used by whistleblowers and the U.S. Department of Justice to hold liable Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) loan recipients, who falsely certified that “current economic uncertainty” made their loans “necessary to support the ongoing operations of the applicant.”
