Should an Insurance Company Be Allowed to Overrule Your Doctor?

In "Torts: The Death of Duty of Care" (New York Law Journal, December 11, 2023), Pollock Cohen partner Steve Cohen discusses of a health insurer's ability to overrule a doctor's prescription/plan via the prior authorization process, and whether or not this triggers the most fundamental concept in torts: the duty of care.

To read the article, please click on the link below.

Torts: The Death of Duty of Care | New York Law Journal