Donald Trump and the Sheriff

In “Donald Trump and the Sheriff” (‘Be Our Guest’, N.Y. Daily News, March 24, 2024), Pollock Cohen partner Adam Pollock and Pedersen & Sons Surety Bond Agency founder, Neil Pedersen, discuss the role New York’s sheriffs and marshals may play to ensure that Donald Trump pays the $465 million judgment he owes the to people of New York.

While Trump was successful in posting a bond in the E. Jean Carroll federal defamation suit – which allowed him to protect his assets while he proceeds with his appeal – he is having trouble securing a bond for the state case brought by the New York Attorney General Letitia James.
