

What I Wish I Knew Then: Anthony Crowell

In "What I Wish I Knew Then: Anthony Crowell" (New York Law Journal, November 16, 2023), the dean and president of New York Law School and counselor to former New York City Mayor Michael Bloomberg reflects on the importance of being low maintenance and high output, and about giving far more than you take.

"One of the best things for a lawyer to be able to do is to talk a little less and listen a little more," he shared with partner Steve Cohen. "Being a lawyer is about a life in service to others."
