

What I Wish I Knew Then: Damian Williams

In “What I Wish I Knew Then” (New York Law Journal, October 2, 2024), Damian Williams, U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of New York, shares insights from his career and discusses the importance of mentorship and embracing feedback.

When speaking to Steve Cohen, he noted, “There are a couple of pieces of advice that I wish I had received earlier in my career. One of them is to embrace feedback. Don't just accept it when it comes your way, but really seek it out.”
