

Alexandra Greene Of Counsel

AGreene@PollockCohen.com

Alex focuses on all manner of whistleblower complaints, including claims arising under the False Claims Act, the SEC whistleblower program, and the IRS whistleblower program. She was previously a corporate associate at WilmerHale, one of the nation's most respected international law firms, and resultantly has broad experience with financial structuring. Alex is a graduate of Yale and Harvard Law School. Following her time at WilmerHale, Alex combined her legal and business expertise with her long-standing creative passion, and served as the Executive Director of Business Affairs of the Park & Fine literary agency. There she helped guide both the agency and its clients in their publishing, film, and work. She also served as VP of Business Affairs for the film and television production company Per Capita Productions.
