

Alexandra Greene Of Counsel

AGreene@PollockCohen.com

Alex is a graduate of Yale and Harvard Law School. She was previously an associate at WilmerHale, one of the nation's most respected international law firms. She then combined her legal and business expertise with her long-standing creative passion, and served as the Executive Director of Business Affairs of the Park & Fine literary agency. There she helped guide both the agency and its clients in their publishing, film, and work. She also served as VP of Business Affairs for the film and television production company Per Capita Productions, which produced the films Bones and All and After Yang, as well as the show Expats, on Amazon.
